Here We Go A-Shoveling

Here we go a-shoveling another path of snow.
Here we go a-trudging, we've got a mile to go.

Snow and ice, that's not nice.
Let's stay in and just think twice.
Past the winter and well into the happy new spring.
Let's stay put till the happy new spring!

Here we go a-shoveling and shoveling some more.
Here we go a-wishing for spring, which we adore.

Snow and ice, that's not nice.
Let's stay in and just think twice.
Past the winter and well into the happy new spring.
Let's stay put till the happy new spring!

Here we go a-shoveling among the flakes so dense.
Here we go a-sliding into the neighbor's fence.

Snow and ice, that's not nice.
Let's stay in and just think twice.
Past the winter and well into the happy new spring.
Let's stay put till the happy new spring!

Here we go a-shoveling till spring. (grunt, moan, sigh, or exclaim)

A Holiday Ho-Ho-Hoedown

Ol' Santa's in a festive mood, and he wants to have some fun
He's gonna throw a barn dance; he's inviting everyone
From Alaska to Atlanta, the word is going forth
"Come on and bring your partner to that shindig way up north"

We'll have a ho-ho-ho-ho-hoedown this ha-ha-holiday
With a hee-hee-heeping helping of laughter all the way
We'll have a ho-ho-ho-ho-hoedown and spread some Christmas cheer
Gonna dosido 'neath the mistletoe at Santa's house this year!

*Honor to your partners, all, and left allemande
Now wish them "Merry Christmas" as you take them by the hand*

*Everybody, circle left, then swing and don't be slow
Then promenade your partner with a happy ho, ho*

The Reindeer have been practicing, and they're polishing their hooves
They can't wait to impress us with their fancy dancing moves
They will all be there with bells on, and you should see the elves!
They're getting so excited that they're plumb beside themselves!

We'll have a ho-ho-ho-ho-hoedown this ha-ha-holiday
With a hee-hee-heeping helping of laughter all the way
We'll have a ho-ho-ho-ho-hoedown and spread some Christmas cheer
Gonna dosido 'neath the mistletoe at Santa's house this year!

Have a Merry Christmas...Hoedown!
